Current Business

This evening's meeting was entirely devoted to gathering ideas for the Sawmill Brook Film Project, as we hope that the CPA funding will be approved at the upcoming Town Meeting.

In addition to narration ideas we already had, members submitted "bullet points" listing the most important topics we hope to convey with the film. We also talked about additional ground-level photography and video that could be added to the existing drone footage.

We looked at several maps we have of the watershed and will work on locating the best/clearest map to include in the video.

Jessica will consolidate all of tonight's ideas and put them in one document to review for the next meeting when we will discuss it with film-maker Perry Hallinan, who will be present at our April meeting.

Next meeting: Monday, April 8, at 7:15 p.m.
