

Contact List
January 2023

- The Department: Massdep.sewagenotification@mass.gov
- The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency: R1.EPANotifications@epa.gov
- The Massachusetts Department of Public Health: DPHToxicology@mass.gov
- The municipal board of health or the health department where the outfall or overflow is located.

Manchester-by-the-Sea Board of Health:
Pam Crehan, Public Health Nurse
10 Central Street, Manchester-by-the-Sea, MA 01944
978-526-7385
publichealthnurse@manchester.ma.us

Manchester-by-the-Sea Board of Health:
Wendy Hansbury, Health Director
10 Central Street, Manchester-by-the-Sea, MA 01944
978-526-7385
hansburyw@manchester.ma.us

- Any person who subscribed to receive such public advisory notifications by email or text messaging. All residents subscribed to MBTS Alerts email list and CodeRed for Sewer Overflow Notifications. <http://manchester.ma.us/list.aspx>
- The public water supplier(s) where drinking water supplies may be affected;
Town of Manchester-by-the-Sea
Ben Patten, Chief Water Treatment Plant Operator
bpatten@woodardcurran.com
978-526-2470
- The Massachusetts Division of Marine Fisheries where shellfish growing areas may be affected: MEMA.StateControl@mass.gov ; jeff.kennedy@mass.gov
- The Massachusetts Department of Conservation and Recreation when its water recreation properties may be affected: MEMA.StateControl@mass.gov
- The Massachusetts Division of Fisheries and Wildlife when its boat ramps and fishing piers may be affected; doug.cameron@mass.gov
- Operators of any potentially affected bathing beaches, as defined in 105 CMR 445.00: Minimum Standards for Bathing Beaches (State Sanitary Code: Chapter VII).
Town of Manchester-by-the-Sea Parks & Recreation
Cheryl Marshall, Director of Parks and Recreation
marshallc@manchester.ma.us
978-526-2019